

Sally Ann (Keyser) Welsh died at home after a courageous two year battle against colon cancer. A 1973 graduate of Ursinus College, Sally received her teaching degree in 1992 and taught math at Upper Perkiomen High School for over 10 years.

Born on October 27, 1951 in Skippack, Pa to Howard and Susie (Grater) Keyser she is survived by her husband Todd and their two daughters, Sue of Boston, MA and Catie of Perkiomenville, Pa., two sisters, Joan, wife of Stanley Landis of Perkiomenville, Pa and Donna, wife of Jerry Gallimore of Huntington, WV, two brothers, Alan of East Greenville, Pa and Stanley of Pacifica, CA, widower of JJ (Burrowes) Keyser, a niece, Darlene Neumann of Perkiomenville, wife of Frank, and five nephews, David Landis of Boyertown, husband of Stephanie, Michael and Alex Gallimore, Michael Burrowes of San Pedro, CA, husband of Alissa and Adam Welsh of Garden City, NY.

A memorial service will be held at St. Luke Lutheran Church at 45 Wilson Avenue in Gilbertsville, Pa 19525 on Saturday, September 24th. Pastor Christopher Weidner will offer prayers and remembrances, with assistance from Reverend Deborah Clemens. Friends will be received starting at 10 AM. A memorial service will begin at 11 AM followed by a luncheon. All friends are invited to attend.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Pottstown Memorial Regional Cancer Center, 1600 E. High Street, Pottstown, Pennsylvania 19464, c/o Peggy Neese, program manager, 610-327-7393, to honor the wonderful doctors, nurses and staff who took such good care of Sally.